

'Right To Work'

is Wrong for Ohio

Public Meeting: Monday, May 21, 2018 | 3:30 PM-4:30 PM
UAW Local 913 Union Hall,
3114 Hayes Avenue, Sandusky 44870

Learn about the negative impact of RTW and what it could actually mean for you.

Remember SB5 in 2011? What is happening in Ohio now?
Ohio Republican legislators have proposed a package of six separate constitutional amendments that would limit how unions are funded, ban project labor agreements where the state or cities require union labor for construction projects, and eliminate prevailing wage, which sets a floor wage for skilled labor on publicly funded projects.

What is happening on the National stage?
Bill H.R.785 – National Right-to-Work Act

Speakers:

John Haseley/Former Chief of Staff for Governor Ted Strickland. Head of We Are Ohio, which coordinates with all Labor Unions and other groups around Ohio in the FIGHT AGAINST 'Right to Work'!

Chris Maxie/Ohio AFL-CIO Central Labor Council - Greater Northwest Area Campaign Coordinator.
Ohio native who worked with Working America, an organization started by the AFL-CIO to build support among non-union voters.
