

Ohio Democratic Party 2020 State Convention

The Ohio Democratic Party Convention will be held virtually on Saturday, August 1, 2020, at 10:30am. Attached is the official Call to the 2020 ODP State Convention and who is eligible as automatic delegates.

By Ohio Democratic Party Rules, only delegates to the State Party Convention may nominate and elect individual(s) as Presidential Electors at the State Convention. At-large delegates are apportioned to each county based on results of the 2018 Gubernatorial Election. Presidential Electors cast the actual ballot for the winning party candidate for President and Vice President of the United States after the General Election scheduled to be held on Tuesday, November 3, 2020.

Ohio has 18 Presidential Electors: One Elector will be chosen by delegates from each of Ohio's 16 Congressional Districts. The other two Electors are statewide at-large and will be chosen by all delegates.

Once Erie County's delegates for the State Convention are elected, they will have the opportunity to nominate an individual or individuals to run for Presidential Elector. Forms will be provided for the nomination(s).

Erie County has been assigned two (2) men and two (2) women at-large delegates.

The election for determining Erie County's at-large delegates will be held on Thursday, June 25, 2020, at 6:30pm during the Regular ECDP Executive Committee Meeting.

This meeting will be held via Zoom and at UAW Local 913 Union Hall, 3114 Hayes Avenue, Sandusky 44870. If you plan to attend in-person, a face mask/covering will be required. The room will be setup to ensure social distancing.

If you are interested in being considered as a delegate from Erie County, please complete the Candidate for Delegate form.
